Matthew M. Blanco

300 E 59th Street Apt. 1905, New York NY, 10022
Blanco.mmb@gmail.com
516.728.5045

Objective: Seeking a Career where my organizational, and computer science skills will be utilized along with my leadership and team collaboration abilities.

Education: Queens College – Computer Science – Expected Graduation – December 2015

Georgia Institute of Technology - Biomedical Engineering - 2010-2012

Xavier High School (JROTC Cadet 1st LT) – Graduation – June 2010

Qualifications Summary

- I am a detail oriented, motivated individual with solid work ethic.
- Ability to work well with others both above and below me.
- Ability to learn new tasks quickly and efficiently
- Fluent in Spanish as a second language

Computer Skills

- Highly proficient in both the Macintosh and PC environments
- Equally flexible in coding using both the Java and C++ environments
- Highly experienced with the Microsoft Office suite
- Proficient in the Microsoft SQL language

Professional Experience

Accumedic Computer Systems   9/2014 - Present
    EMR Clinical Database Manager

Peyser and Alexander Management   9/2006 – 5/2010
    Database and File Manager

Pre-Professional Experience

Service

- Habitat for Humanity: Tennessee and Alabama
- Church of Saint Mary the Virgin: Tutoring Elementary Students, After School Care
- Atlanta Community Food Bank: Food Collection, Fundraising

Leadership

- Obtained the rank of Lieutenant 1st Cadet early into my JROTC career.
- Assistant coordinator for the Biomedical Engineering Society – The Lambda Chi Alpha Representative.
- Vice President of the NYSSHS.
- Implemented a school-wide recycling initiative.
- Recognized for initiative and innovative problem solving skills in classes, clubs, and activities.

Coursework: Object Oriented Programming in C++   A+
               Object Oriented programming in Java   A-
               Computer Organization and Assembly Language A